

Producer/Production Manager

Do you imagine a position where you play a key role in an engaged and committed team creating professional film projects?

Do you thrive in a fast-paced environment and still deliver great results?

Are you able to facilitate film production and at the same time create a supreme client experience, both in the studio and on location?

As producer/production manager at AVdesign you will get the chance to work in a top professional, positive and encouraging work environment with like-minded individuals who have a strong passion within their field. We value rich opportunity for professional and personal development.

About us

We are a Billund based and fast-growing international production company. AVdesign was founded in 2005 and now employs 16 colleagues including animators, CG generalists, producers, production assistants, videographers etc.

We create a great variety of content across different platforms and support clients worldwide with a range of exciting projects.

AVdesign is located together with My Instore Radio and in total we employ 26 skilled colleagues of different nationalities.

We are looking for a new colleague to join our video team, where we have gathered some of the most skilled and dedicated enthusiasts from the business. The team consists of 5 people.

About the role

The ideal candidate will have strong background as a producer/production manager or within project management. Furthermore, an open mind and a flexible approach for a semi broad pallet of assignments, is also a requirement. Jobs can vary from filming, livestream, overseeing editing and studio product shoots. We strive for an open and supportive way of working where sharing knowledge and ideas are highly valued.

Experience from the media industry e.g., in video production, live-streaming or broadcast is an advantage, but not a strict requirement.

The position is both operational and hands-on, requiring both an interest in coordination as well as collaboration with others.

About you

It is natural for you to interact with both clients and our in-house producers, videographers, photographers, and production assistants. Most importantly, you bring a passion for coordinating.

To succeed in the role, it is an advantage to be outgoing and creative, be proactive and find it easy to adjust to changes in the project.

Furthermore, we appreciate you having a positive attitude, great at both teamwork and working independently, good communication skills - fluent in English is crucial for this position. Fluent in Danish is an advantage, but not a strict requirement.

Your profile:

- Previous experience in a similar role working as producer/production manager.
- You will be able to demonstrate superb planning skills, and the ability to manage several projects at one time.
- Work independently and according to brief.
- Have an excellent attention to details with expert time keeping.
- Show initiative with a proactive problem solve and flexible approach.
- The ability to manage multiple projects at the same time and deliver to the agreed deadlines.
- Be a team player and willing to run the extra mile when required.
