Are you a passionate, reliable, and skilled motion graphic designer?

Do you get motivated by creative solution thinking and at the same time working with a strong team of creatives?

Do you thrive in a fast-paced environment and still deliver great results?

As motion graphic designer at AVdesign you will get the chance to work in a top professional and friendly environment with like-minded individuals who have a strong passion within their field. We value personal development and -responsibility.

About us

We are a Billund based and fast-growing production company. AVdesign was founded in 2005 and now employs 17 colleagues including animators, CG generalists, producers, production assistants, videographers etc.

We create a great variety of content across different platforms and support clients worldwide with a range of exciting projects.

AVdesign is located together with My Instore Radio and in total we employ about 27 skilled colleagues of different nationalities.

About the role

The ideal candidate will have a mix of strong technical and creative skills and an open mind for a broad pallet of assignments. Especially the visual creativity is highly appreciated among the skills.

The role requires a flexible approach and the ability to adapt to changing priorities, depending on the client and project requirements. It can range from live actions to 3D animation. The role will be predominantly 2D based, working mainly in Adobe After Effects and Adobe Suite.

Furthermore, the role from time to time requires an independent creative approach to take action and solve things.

About you

Positive attitude, great at both teamwork and working independently, and good communication skills - but fluent Danish is not a requirement as the work language is English.

Your profile:

- Previous experience in a similar role working with motion graphics.
- Experienced in Adobe Creative Suite: After Effects, Illustrator and photoshop.
- Strong design skills.
- Creative solution thinking.
- Visual creative minded.
- Work independently and according to brief.
- Be a team player who can work collaboratively and contribute to the team.
- Have an excellent attention to details with expert time keeping and the ability to work to deadlines.
- Show initiative with a proactive problem solve and flexible approach.
- The ability to manage multiple projects at the same time and deliver to the agreed deadlines.
- Help innovate and increase client success.
- Have a strong work ethic.
